Dividend Payments: Account Holder Options

Currency Election
If you do not elect to participate in the Amended and Restated Dividend Reinvestment Plan, you will receive your dividends in cash payable in United States dollars unless you indicate otherwise below. In order for your currency election to be effective in relation to a particular dividend, Computershare Trust Company of Canada ("Computershare") must receive a completed form before the record date for that dividend. Your election will remain effective until you notify Computershare otherwise.

Please mark your preferred currency below. If no election is made, you will continue to be paid in United States dollars.

☐ Canadian Dollars – The Canadian dollar equivalent of such dividends will be based on the applicable U.S. dollar/Canadian dollar exchange rate on the record date for each dividend.

☐ United Kingdom Pounds Sterling – The United Kingdom pound sterling equivalent of such dividends will be based on the applicable U.S. dollar/British pound sterling exchange rate on the record date for each dividend.

☐ United States Dollars – This box should only be checked by a shareholder who has previously elected to receive dividends in Canadian dollars or United Kingdom pounds sterling and now elects to receive dividends in United States dollars.
