Who should use this form?

This Form is for use by a registered holder of common shares (referred to as “shares”) in the capital of Thomson Reuters Corporation (“Thomson Reuters” or the “Company”) that is, or is acting on behalf of a beneficial owner of shares that is, as applicable (a) not a resident of Canada for Canadian income tax purposes and is subject to income tax in a jurisdiction other than Canada (and is not exempt from income tax in that jurisdiction) or (b) an individual who is a resident of Canada for Canadian income tax purposes and who is also subject to income tax in a jurisdiction other than Canada as a resident of that other jurisdiction (and is not exempt from income tax in that other jurisdiction) (an “Eligible Opt-Out Shareholder”) for the purpose of opting out of the Return of Capital Transaction (as defined below). You are a registered shareholder if your name appears directly on your share certificates or if you hold shares in book-entry form through the direct registration system (“DRS”) on the records of our transfer agent, Computershare Trust Company of Canada.

If you are a non-registered shareholder satisfying the requirements to be an Eligible Opt-Out Shareholder, you should contact your investment dealer, stock broker, bank, trust company or other nominee or other intermediary to opt out of the Return of Capital Transaction. You are a non-registered shareholder if you own shares indirectly; nonregistered shareholders do not have shares registered in their name, but the shares are registered in the name of an intermediary, which include, among others, banks, trust companies, securities dealers or brokers and trustees or administrators of self-administered RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs and similar plans.

Participants in Thomson Reuters' employee stock purchase plans ("ESPP") and holders of Depositary Interests should not use this Form.

Where can I find additional information?

A plan of arrangement (the "Plan of Arrangement") implementing the Return of Capital Transaction is being submitted for approval at the annual and special meeting of shareholders of the Company to be held on June 14, 2023 (the "Meeting"), as described in a management proxy circular dated April 26, 2023 (the "Circular"). Shareholders are encouraged to review in their entirety the Circular prepared in connection with the Meeting, which is available under the Company's profile on SEDAR at www.sedar.com and on EDGAR at www.sec.gov. The terms and conditions of the Return of Capital Transaction are incorporated by reference in this Form. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Form have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan of Arrangement and Circular that accompanies this Form. In the case of any inconsistency between the terms of this Form and the Plan of Arrangement and Circular, the terms of the Plan of Arrangement and Circular shall prevail.

What happens under the Return of Capital Transaction?

Under the Return of Capital Transaction, each shareholder that does not opt out (a "participating shareholder") will receive, for each share, a cash distribution of US$4.67 and the shares held by such shareholder will be consolidated on a basis that is proportional to the cash distribution (through a "reverse stock split"). The share consolidation ratio will be fixed based on the volume weighted average trading price of the shares on the New York Stock Exchange for the five trading days immediately prior to the Effective Time. The formula to calculate the share consolidation ratio is set forth in the "Information Regarding the Return of Capital Transaction – Terms of the Arrangement - Share Consolidation Ratio" section of the Circular.

What happens if I exercise my right to opt out?

A shareholder (an "opting out shareholder") that exercises its right to opt out of the Return of Capital Transaction (the "opt-out right") will not receive a cash distribution of US$4.67 per share and will not have its shares consolidated; it will continue to hold the same number of shares that it currently holds. An opting-out shareholder will realize a proportionate increase in its equity and voting interests in the Company by virtue of the consolidation of shares held by participating shareholders. For more information on the Return of Capital Transaction, please refer to the Circular.

Why is the opt-out right only being given to certain shareholders?

The opt-out right is being given to Eligible Opt-Out Shareholders because the tax consequences of not participating in the Return of Capital Transaction may be preferable to those associated with participating in the Return of Capital Transaction. For more information, see the "Income Tax Considerations" section of the Circular. Shareholders wishing to exercise their opt-out right are strongly urged to carefully consider the income tax consequences of exercising the opt-out right and to consult with their own tax advisors with respect to their particular circumstances and tax considerations applicable to them.

If I want to opt out, what do I need to send to the Depositary and what's the deadline?

Each Eligible Opt-Out Shareholder holding shares in its own name, by holding physical share certificates or by holding shares through DRS, may exercise the opt-out right by forwarding the following documents to the Depository prior to June 13, 2023 at 5:00 p.m. (Toronto time) or if the Meeting is adjourned or postponed, no later than 24 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before any adjourned or postponed meeting (the “opt-out deadline”):

- (a) a duly completed version of this Form; and
- (b) a duly completed Letter of Transmittal enclosed separately (on yellow paper), accompanied by any certificates representing your shares.

This Form may be submitted to the Depository by mail, hand delivery, courier, registered mail or e-mail (at the addresses set forth on the cover of this Form) but the Letter of Transmittal and accompanying share certificate(s), if any, must be submitted to the Depository by mail, hand delivery, courier or registered mail to the addresses set forth on the cover of the Letter of Transmittal.

Registered shareholders exercising the opt-out right may, upon request, be required to execute any additional documents and instruments as may be required by the Depository or the Company, at their discretion, to be reasonably necessary or desirable to opt-out of the Return of Capital Transaction.

This Form is for use by registered shareholders only and is not to be used by beneficial (non-registered) holders of shares. Non-registered shareholders should contact their intermediary to exercise the opt-out right.

What happens to my shares if I opt out?

Although the number of shares held by each opting-out shareholder will not change as a result of the Return of Capital Transaction, as of the Effective Time, each registered opting-out shareholder shall be entitled to receive new DRS statement(s) (or if requested in its Letter of Transmittal, share certificate(s)) representing its shares reflecting the new CUSIP number for the shares.

Can I withdraw an opt-out election?

This Form may be withdrawn by a shareholder prior to the opt-out deadline, but is irrevocable thereafter. To withdraw this Form, the shareholder must provide a written notice of revocation to the Depository that (a) specifies the name of the shareholder having exercised the opt-out right under this Form to be withdrawn and (b) is signed by the shareholder in the same manner as the signature on this Form. If a shareholder does not revoke its election to opt out before the opt-out deadline, such shareholder will not be able to transfer its shares for any reason until the completion of the Return of Capital Transaction.

Can I sell or transfer shares after delivering this Form?

Registered shareholders wishing to sell or transfer their shares after delivering a duly completed version of this Form must provide written notice to the Depository prior to the opt-out deadline which revokes their election with respect to the shares that they wish to transfer and requests the return of such shares that are deposited with the Depository. Registered shareholders should allow sufficient time for this process in order to transfer deposited shares. Otherwise, you will not be able to transfer shares until after the Return of Capital Transaction is completed.

General

It is recommended that registered shareholders wishing to opt out of the Return of Capital Transaction complete, sign and return this Form to the Depository as soon as practicable following receipt. Any shareholder who does not deposit with the Depository a duly completed Form prior to the opt-out deadline, or otherwise fails to comply with the requirements under this Form, the Plan of Arrangement or the Circular, shall be deemed to be a participating shareholder.

None of Thomson Reuters, its board of directors, the Information Agent or the Depositary makes any recommendation to any shareholder as to whether to opt out of the Return of Capital Transaction. Shareholders are urged to evaluate carefully all information in this Opt-Out Election and Certification Form, the Circular and other material related to the Return of Capital Transaction, consult their own financial, legal, investment and tax advisors and make their own decisions as to whether to exercise the opt-out right. See the "Information Regarding the Return of Capital Transaction – Terms of the Arrangement – Opt-Out Right" and "Income Tax Considerations" sections of the Circular.

Delivery of this instrument to an address other than shown above does not constitute a valid delivery.
